

ABOUT TIFFANY STUART

Tiffany Stuart is a writer and speaker who inspires others to stop, look and listen to God daily. Currently writing her first book, she is excited to share her freedom from shame journey. Tiffany was once a wild, worldly girl but today she is wild about Jesus.

As a speaker, Tiffany's messages enable others to:

- * Live free of shame by walking in their God-given dignity.
- * Accept self in a world wanting us to be one-size-fits-all.
- * Replace paralyzing fear with powerful faith.
- * Develop a stronger, more intimate, prayer life.
- * Discover how God's love can heal the deepest wounds.
- * Redeem their past by giving God their broken pieces.

For 7 years Tiffany continues to blog at Tea with Tiffany, using her photos and personal stories to make her point. Captivated by God's love, Tiffany prays her words will motivate others to seek God more. As a writer her published works include: Focus on the Family websites and magazines, The Upper Room, Devozone, and CBN.com. She received an Honorable Mention Award (inspirational category) for the 75th Annual Writers Digest Writing Contest.

As a mom, Tiffany understands the pressures of both the full-time working mom and the stay-at-home mom. Her former career days were spent managing apartment communities. Because of her life experiences, Tiffany speaks to both Christians and non-Christians of all ages and backgrounds. She is committed to growing her relationship with the Lord and loves to encourage others to do the same.

Tiffany and her husband, Derek, live in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with their two teenagers, Justin and Hannah. For more information, visit www.teawithtiffany.com or call (719)650-1008.

QUOTES FROM READERS:

"I will never look at the backside of a zebra the same again!"

"One of the best posts I have ever read."

"I think I am going to frame a couple of pictures of zebra butts and put them where I can see them daily."

What Others Are Saying:

"Tiffany's story is one of hope, forgiveness and life. I would highly recommend her. Tiffany's unique message touched the lives of hundreds here in Colorado Springs." Pastor Mike Worley, The Gathering, Colorado Springs, CO

"Tiffany Stuart uses her gifts of photography and personal stories to inspire audiences."
Lynn Donovan, co-author of Winning Him Without Words - California

"a perfect combination of practical information and inspiration." Scoti Springfield Domeij, Director of Springs Writers - Colorado

"The life and heart of Jesus Christ is evident in Tiffany's easy way of loving others, as well as her teaching. She's the real deal." Angie Knight, devotional writer, Florida

"Transparent. Real. Tiffany blessed my soul. I laughed, I cried, and I left the conference wanting to know Jesus the way Tiffany does." Joanne Kraft, author of Just Too Busy - California

"We worked together with young girls (ages 13 -18) who are in a lock down facility. It was obvious that the girls were touched by Tiffany's life story and sharing." Denise Oldach

"Tiffany has the gift of encouragement. When she speaks about God and His love for people, you know she is talking about HER God and how He has changed her life." Linda Kracht, Colorado Springs

"Tiffany brings a heart for the LORD, a passion to share His truth, her testimony, and a desire to see others encouraged." ~Pastor and author, Lisa Shaw, Florida

"With engaging warmth, Tiffany brings forth a riveting presentation. As you observe her rock tumbling demonstration, with priceless truths woven in, you will never see yourself...or God in the same light again." Ralina, Field Trip Coordinator - High Country Home Educators - Colorado Springs

"Are you looking for a speaker with heart, transparency and compassion? Are you looking for someone with ability to clearly communicate the healing power of God? Tiffany will bless you through her powerful life story. The age or gender of the listener will be irrelevant. The impact of Tiffany's story will cross all situations and boundaries and help the listener to enter the path of healing...physically, emotionally and spiritually." Mike Rueffert, Executive Director, Youth for Christ of Southern Colorado

"As the women's ministry leader I'm constantly on the lookout for powerful guest speakers, so when I found Tiffany Stuart I knew I had hit the mark. She is a gentle soul with a powerful God-driven message. Tiffany captured the audience right away with her testimony. If you are looking for a get real, open honest Christian speaker, I recommend her. Many women have told me that Tiffany said just what they needed to hear."
Sherri Moore - Women's Ministry Leader- Pikes Peak Christian Church, Colorado Springs

"From word one to the last word I was hooked."
She Speaks Conference- Concord, NC - feedback from Speaker Evaluation Form

"I will be keeping the polished rock in my pocket." Anonymous comment after my Rough, Polished or Somewhere in Between Talk

"You made our retreat so special! The women obviously saw what I saw in you the very first time I talked with you. Keep on letting God use you." Kelli R. - Women's Retreat Coordinator - Academy Christian Church - Colorado

"I had several moms say that was exactly what they needed to hear at this point in their lives. Thank you, thank you!" Shari Culver - MOPs coordinator
